Fun Facts About Writers and their Lives

1. Mark Twain and Harriet Beecher Stowe (author of Uncle Tom's Cabin) were neighbors.
2. R. L. Stine started writing humor stories before writing horror stories.
3. Roald Dahl was a World War II flying ace.
4. Carolyn Keene is not a real person. It's a pseudonym which many authors wrote under when writing the Nancy Drew series.
5. J.K. Rowling's editor did not want her to use her first name (Joanne) because they thought that the book's main audience would be young boys and they would not want to read a book written by a woman.
6. Christopher Paolini was the youngest best selling author at the age of 15. There have been younger authors, but none with the popularity of the Inheritance Cycle series.
7. James Patterson is the highest paid author in 2016 for the third year in a row. JK Rowling has now topped him by a small margin.
8. Dan Brown was a singer and songwriter before he became a writer.
9. Jodi Picoult has also dabbled in comics. In 2007 she wrote for Wonder Woman.
10. Tom Clancy is part owner of Baltimore Orioles.

Friends Column

- Start your new little one off right by teaching him/her to love books and to love to be read to! The Friends have purchased Books for Babies kits which are available at the library for anyone in the community who has a child born or adopted into their family!
- Recently the Friends sponsored the Silly Safari program to kick off the Summer Reading Program! Several excited children saw a tarantula, an owl, a snake, a rabbit, a kinkajou, and many other interesting creatures as they signed up for a fun summer of reading!
- Speaking of the Summer Reading program, 94 children and 26 teens signed up this year and earned some great prizes sponsored by the Friends. Good job with your reading this summer, everyone!
- Our annual Used Book Sale was a great success this summer! We raised over $1100 for the library! Thanks so much to all of our members and supporters who donated so generously!
- Our next meeting is Monday, September 25, 2017 at 7pm at the library. We will be discussing how to best use the funds we've raised for the library. Hope to see you there!
