Christmas will be here soon. The staff wishes you all a Merry Christmas. Stop by the library and borrow a Christmas movie to watch together with your family. Or borrow a book from our large selection of Christmas books and enjoy. Here are just a few titles, stop by the library for more.

Classic Christmas Movies: It's a Wonderful Life, Elf, Mrs. Miracle, Santa Clause, Prancer, A Charlie Brown Christmas, Miracle on 34th Street, A Christmas Story and Christmas in Connecticut

New Christmas Movies: Once Upon a Christmas Miracle, But-tons: a Christmas Tale, and Veterans Christmas

Old Favorite Christmas Books: How the Grinch Stole Christmas, Night Before Christmas, Polar Express, Dicken's Christmas Carol, Christmas Train by David Baldacci, Red Glove series by Karen Kingsbury Christmas Shoes by Donna VanLier and Visons of Sugar Plums by Janet Evanovich. There are also many craft and cooking books for inspiration of gift giving and dinner parties.

New Christmas Books: Spirit of the Season by Fern Michaels, Let it Snow by Nancy Thayer, Mrs. Miracle Christmas by Debbie Macomber, Christmas in Winter Hill by Melody Carlson, and Thomas Kinkad's Cape Light series A Christmas Secret by Katherine Spencer

Once Christmas is past, we hope to see you the rest of the winter enjoying our many services: books, movies, programs...

Memorial Books:

In memory of Ben O'Neill, Uncommoners Crooked and Shadows of Down were donated by Agnes Dombrowski, Cheryl Scriptor and Sue Waibel

In memory of Fay Marie Longest, Art of Pie was donated by Tom and Phyllis Buschman

Next Friends of the Library meeting is January 27 at 7pm. Come join us as we plan for 2020. What should we sponsor? We would like to here your ideas.

JUST CRAFTING AROUND

January 18 9 AM – 3 PM

February 8 9 AM – 3 PM

March 14 9 AM – 3 PM

The library will have their Cricut machine set up for your use. Bring your own card stock or vinyl (call the library if you have questions on what to bring, 261-2543).

Are you taking scrapbooking in 4-H? This is a great opportunity to get tips on your project. Robyn Stark, your 4-H Scrapbook Project Leader will be here to answer questions and give tips.

Come and go as you please! Food and Drinks are on your own.

No Pinterest Nights currently scheduled.
Call the library or check our website in January for winter's Pinterest Night activities.
Will announce on Facebook too.
